WHAT DOES COR CLEARING LLC (“COR”) DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Who?

As a clearing firm, COR provides clearing services to your introducing broker dealer pursuant to a Fully Disclosed Clearing Agreement. Examples of these clearing services include, but are not limited to trade execution, trade reporting, and other back office operations. The nature of these services requires COR to receive and retain nonpublic personal information.

Why?

Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. COR is committed to protecting the privacy of all nonpublic personal information that it receives. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

What?

We collect your personal information from your introducing broker dealer in order to provide the services necessary to maintain your account. The types of personal information we collect and share may include, but are not limited to:

What we do

How does COR protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, COR maintains physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards in accordance with industry and legal standards.

How does COR collect my personal information?

COR may collect information:

- Directly from you or your introducing broker dealer on applications or other forms;
- About your account transactions with your introducing broker dealer, such as account balances, positions, and activity;
- From consumer and credit reporting agencies;
- Received from other sources with your consent or the consent of your introducing broker dealer.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only:

- Sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes – information about your creditworthiness
- Affiliates from using your information to market to you
- Sharing for non-affiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.
